1. These terms and conditions are the competition rules that apply to all competitions organised by or on behalf of Central Students' Union.
2. In addition to the Rules, other specific terms and condition may apply to a particular competition. Such specific rules will be posted on the website or announced with the details of the Competition. Any specific rules will be deemed incorporated into these rules. In the event of any discrepancy between these rules and the specific rules, the specific rules shall prevail.
3. By entering a competition, entrants agree to be bound by these rules and any specific rules that may apply.
4. Central Students' Union reserves the right to cancel or amend any competition, these rules or any specific rules at any time without prior notice. Any changes will be posted either within these rules or the specific rules or on the website. At any time, without notice, further terms and conditions may be issued to be read in conjunction with these rules and specific rules that may apply.
5. Officers of Central Students' Union, trustees or employees of Central Students' Union, governors or employees of The Royal Central School of Speech and Drama and employees of any party associated or directly connected to or with the specific competition (including sponsors) and their families, officers, employees and agents (as applicable) are not eligible to enter any competition.
6. Only one entry per person per competition is permitted, unless otherwise stated. Entrants must provide a valid email address.
7. Some competitions may be restricted to members of Central Students' Union or residents of the United Kingdom. This is at the discretion of Central Students' Union and will usually be to minimise any postal charges in sending the prize to the competition winner or where the prize involves visiting a location restricted to members or the United Kingdom to help ensure that such a visit is practicable.
8. Central Students' Union only works using the English language. Competition entries will need to be submitted in English. Any entry may be excluded if the entry cannot be understood.
9. Proof or making a phone call or sending an email is not proof of our receipt of your entry. No responsibility can be accepted to entries that are lost, delayed or damaged or otherwise affected by matters outside our control. Entries must be submitted in the format specified in the competition – for example, if the competition asks for entries by email, then that is the only way to enter that specific competition.

10. Where a competition has a closing date or time, all entries must be received before such date or time. Late entries will not be taken into consideration in the selection of a winner.
11. By entering a competition, you hereby warrant that all information submitted by you is true, current and complete.
12. Central Students' Union reserves the right to disqualify any entrant if it has reasonable grounds to believe the entrant has breached any of these rules, or any specific rules, or any other terms and conditions that apply to any competition. Furthermore, entrants who are rude, abusive or deemed otherwise unsuitable by Central Students' Union will be excluded from the relevant competition.
13. Collusion with other competition entrants is strictly prohibited and may result in immediate disqualification.
14. Competition winners will be chosen at random unless otherwise specified. The method of randomly selecting the winner shall be at the sole discretion of the President of Central Students' Union or a person delegated by the President.
15. The decision of the President of Central Students' Union is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
16. Central Students' Union will endeavour to notify and deliver prizes to winners of each competition within 30 days of the closing date set for such competition. Return of any prize notification as undeliverable or failure to reply within 30 days or as specified in the notification may result in disqualification and the selection of an alternative winner.
17. All competition prizes are subject to availability.
18. Where prizes are posted to the winner, Central Students' Union will not be responsible for any customs duty, import, or other charges that may be applicable.
19. No competition prize may be transferred or assigned to any other person and no cash alternative or alternative prize is available. In the event of the advertised competition prize being unavailable for whatever reason, Central Students' Union reserves the right to offer an alternative prize of equal or greater value.
20. Competition prizes are awarded at the sole discretion of Central Students' Union and no prizes will be awarded as a result of improper actions by or on behalf of any entrant.
21. No responsibility will be accepted for inaccurate competition prize details supplied by Central Students' Union.
22. Central Students' Union shall not be responsible for any damage, loss, injury or disappointment suffered by any entrant entering, or being unable to enter, any competition or as a result of accepting any competition prize. Neither shall it be held responsible for any problems or technical malfunction of any telephone network or lines, computer online system, servers or providers, computer equipment, software failure of any email or entry to be received on account of technical problems or traffic congestion on the internet, telephone lines or at any website, or any combination thereof, including any injury or damage to any entrants or any other person's computer or mobile telephone related to or resulting from participation in or downloading any materials in a competition.

23. Competition winners may be required to take part in or co-operate with publicity or any other form of promotional activity. Central Students' Union reserves the right to use the names and details of winners, and any recordings of them (be it audio or visual) in any publicity or promotion. All competition entrants agree to their name, home town and their course of study at Central being published online. Entrants agree to their participation being broadcast, recorded, repeated and otherwise used for any reason by Central Students' Union without being entitled to any payment for such use.
24. Any personal data relating to competition entrants will be used solely in accordance with current UK data protection legislation and will not be disclosed to a third party without the entrant's consent.
25. Central Students' Union will keep a winning entrant's personal details for a reasonable time so that it can send the entrant the winning prize, to verify that these rules (and any specific rules, if applicable) have been complied with, and for accounting purposes.
26. Each competition (including these rules, any specific rules and all matters incidental thereto) shall be governed by English law and all parties shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
27. Central Students' Union is a students' union associated with the Royal Central School of Speech and Drama under the Education Act 1994 and an excepted charity under the Charities (Exception from Registration) Regulations 2010.
